ACTIVITY 2

Easter crossword

Read the clues and write one Easter word in each line of boxes. Every word is about Easter or spring.

Across

4 To put something where other people can't see it.

5 A young sheep. Many families also eat it at Easter.

7 A young rabbit. In many countries it brings the eggs.

8 The season after winter.

11 Sweet and brown. Most Easter eggs in shops are made of it.

12 Easter Day is always on this day of the week.

Down

1 To change the color of an egg with a colored liquid.

2 A white flower you often see in churches at Easter.

3 Children look for hidden eggs in an egg ____.

4 A day when you don't go to work.

6 You carry Easter eggs and sweets in this.

9 A hat tied under the chin, worn in Easter parades.

10 People walk through the streets together in a ____.

11 A baby chicken.

Then write. Choose five words from the crossword and write one true sentence about your own Easter or spring with each.

ACTIVITY 3

Egg hunt: the board

Choose an egg and say its number. On screen, click the egg to open it. On paper, find the egg with the same number on page 4. Each number can be chosen once.

In the classroom

Cut out the eggs on page 4 and hide them around the room. Students find two each and write their answers on the back. You don't need this page.

Online or one-to-one

Share this page on screen. The student picks a number and you click that egg: it opens on its own page. Click Back to the board for the next egg.

ACTIVITY 3

Egg hunt: the eggs

Do the task on your egg and write the answer on the back. White eggs: explain the word. Pink: answer the question. Green: finish the sentence. Cut on the dashed lines.

ACTIVITY 8

Who ate the Easter egg?

On Thursday morning, Olena, the office manager, put a giant chocolate egg in the kitchen fridge for Friday's Easter party. At 1 p.m. the egg was gone. In the recycling bin there was only its gold foil, folded into a tiny, neat square.

Marta
ACCOUNTANT

"I was at a client's office from 10 to 2. Here's my taxi receipt."

Diego
DESIGNER

"I love chocolate, but I can't eat nuts. I'm allergic."

Tom
DEVELOPER

There is chocolate on his keyboard. "It's from my muffin!"

Olena
OFFICE MANAGER

"I was on calls in my office all morning, with the door closed."

Clues

1. The egg was hazelnut praline: chocolate full of nuts.
2. The kitchen door code was used at 11:40.
3. Olena's phone shows no calls between 11:30 and 12:00.
4. There is an empty chocolate-chip muffin wrapper in Tom's bin.
5. Olena folds every receipt and wrapper into a tiny square.

Guessing about the past

must have eaten = I'm sure it's true.

might have eaten = it's possible.

can't have eaten = I'm sure it's not true.

Write one sentence about each suspect with must have, might have or can't have, and say why.

Marta _____

Diego _____

Tom _____

Not used in part B: count your chickens before they hatch, egg a friend on. Part C: your own sentences.

Who ate the Easter egg? · page 7

Marta can't have eaten it, because she was at a client's office from 10 to 2.

Diego can't have eaten it, because the egg was full of nuts and he is allergic.

Tom might have eaten it, but the chocolate on his keyboard is probably from his chocolate-chip muffin.

Olena must have eaten it, because she had no calls at 11:40 and the foil was folded into a tiny square.

Olena ate the egg. Her answer: "I was only checking the quality."
