How to play Easter table talk

Groups of three or four sit around a table with the cards face down in the middle. That pile is the dish. A student takes a card and answers in at least three sentences. Then they pass the dish: they ask the student on their left one follow-up question about the answer, and that student takes the next card. In pairs, take turns. One-to-one, you and your student both answer every card. Online, share page 9 and let your student pick a number.

For the teacher

> Questions 1, 3, 12, 15 and 36 ask about the student's own family. Let any student answer about a friend, or take another card without saying why. In 2027, Western Easter falls on March 28 and Orthodox Easter on May 2, so a mixed class can play twice.

Language for the table

PASSING THE DISH

What was that like?
Who taught you that?
Do you still do it?

EXPLAINING A CUSTOM

It's a kind of ...
We do it to ...
It's supposed to bring ...

KEEPING IT PRIVATE

I'd rather not say, but ...
Can I answer about a friend?
Let's take another card.

ACTIVITY 2

Then and now

B1 · Easter as a child and today, with used to

Alone: fill in the two columns about you. In pairs: then ask your partner What did you use to do? and write their answer in the last column.

EASTER	WHEN I WAS A CHILD	NOW	MY PARTNER, AS A CHILD
Easter bread EXAMPLE	We used to bake paska with my grandmother on Saturday.	Now I buy it from a bakery near my office.
Easter breakfast What, where, with whom?
Who came to visit Family, neighbors, friends?
Eggs Painted, dyed, chocolate?
Clothes Something new or special?
Sweets and treats How many? Who gave them?
Easter Sunday morning Church, a walk, sleeping late?
Easter Monday Work, visits, games?

used to + verb for habits and states in the past that are not true now: We used to visit my aunt.

didn't use to in negatives, no -d: I didn't use to like lamb. Did you use to ...? in questions.

Write three sentences: two about you, one about your partner.

ACTIVITY 3

Have you ever...?

A2-B1 · Easter experiences, with the present perfect and past simple

Alone: tick Yes or No for you, and add a detail for every Yes. In pairs or as a class: ask the questions. Write the name of every student who says yes, and ask the follow-up question.

HAVE YOU EVER ...?	ME	WHO SAID YES	ASK NEXT
Have you ever dyed eggs with onion skins?	☐ Yes ☐ No		When was the last time?
Have you ever decorated eggs with wax, like pysanky or pisanki?	☐ Yes ☐ No		Who showed you how?
Have you ever baked Easter bread at home?	☐ Yes ☐ No		What kind?
Have you ever taken a basket of food to church to be blessed?	☐ Yes ☐ No		What was in it?
Have you ever played an egg-tapping game?	☐ Yes ☐ No		Did you win?
Have you ever been splashed with water on Easter Monday?	☐ Yes ☐ No		Who did it?
Have you ever watched an Easter procession?	☐ Yes ☐ No		Where was it?
Have you ever gone away for the Easter weekend?	☐ Yes ☐ No		Where did you go?
Have you ever eaten so much at Easter that you felt ill?	☐ Yes ☐ No		What did you eat?
Have you ever forgotten that it was Easter weekend?	☐ Yes ☐ No		What happened?

> Have you ever ...? asks about experience at any time: Yes, I have. / No, I haven't. The detail is a finished time, so it takes the past simple: Marta has made pysanky. She made them with her grandmother in 2019.

Write two pairs of sentences like the example: one about you, one about a classmate or a family member.

ACTIVITY 4
