Your turn

Kevin's mother walks in on Christmas morning. Write what Kevin says first, and what she says back.

Kevin

His mother

ACTIVITY 3 B1-B2

The Holiday: swap your home

In The Holiday (2006), two women swap homes for Christmas: Iris leaves her cottage in an English village, and Amanda leaves her house in Los Angeles. Read two invented listings in the same spirit, then circle A or B.

LISTING A

Snowy cottage in an English village

A small stone cottage with a real fireplace, two bedrooms and a garden. The village has one pub, one shop and a church, and London is 50 minutes away by train. The neighbor's dog visits every morning: he isn't ours, but he thinks he is. The stairs are steep and the Wi-Fi is slow upstairs.

House rule: please take your shoes off at the door.

LISTING B

Big modern house in Los Angeles

Four bedrooms, a pool, a home cinema and a huge kitchen you will never need, because you can get any meal delivered. The beach is 25 minutes away by car, and you will need a car for everything. The gate opens with a code, and the neighbors are very quiet.

House rule: no parties, please.

1	Which home is better if you don't drive?	A	B
2	Where might an animal visit you every day?	A	B
3	Where can you go for a swim without leaving home?	A	B
4	Which owner is honest about a problem with the internet?	A	B
5	Where is it easier to eat well without cooking?	A	B

Write your own listing

60 to 80 words: a headline, the three best things about your home, one honest problem and one house rule.

Ask the owner

~~Is there a car?~~ → I was wondering if there's a car I could use.
~~Can I invite friends?~~ → Would it be OK if I invited two friends for dinner?
~~Where's the key?~~ → Could you tell me where I can find the key?

Swap listings with your partner. Write three polite questions about their home, then answer theirs.

ACTIVITY 4 B2-C1

A Christmas Carol: a modern Scrooge

Charles Dickens published A Christmas Carol in December 1843. Ebenezer Scrooge, a rich and mean old businessman, meets three spirits on Christmas Eve and wakes up a different man. These lines are from the book.

HOW DICKENS DESCRIBES SCROOGE
a squeezing, wrenching, grasping, scraping, clutching, covetous, old sinner! Hard and sharp as flint ... secret, and self-contained, and solitary as an oyster.

WHAT SCROOGE THINKS OF CHRISTMAS
"Bah!" said Scrooge, "Humbug!"

SCROOGE ON CHRISTMAS MORNING
I am as light as a feather, I am as happy as an angel, I am as merry as a school-boy.

Dickens's words

Find each word in the lines above. Write the letter of its meaning in the box.

- ☐ grasping
- ☐ covetous
- ☐ solitary

- ☐ merry

A a very hard gray stone
B happy and full of fun
C always trying to get more money or things
D nonsense, something false
E alone, with no friends or company
F wanting what other people have

Plan a modern version

In pairs, move the story to 2026. Make notes in each box.

Our Scrooge in 2026
Name, job and city

Why everyone avoids them
What do they do or say?

The Ghost of Christmas Past shows ...
A memory from their childhood or first job

The Ghost of Christmas Present shows ...
What other people say about them right now

The Ghost of Christmas Yet to Come shows ...
What happens if nothing changes

On Christmas morning, our Scrooge ...
One thing they do to change

Pitch it

Sell your version to the class in two minutes, as if the class were a film studio. The class votes for the film they would make.

It's set in ... | Our Scrooge is a ... who ... | The ghosts show ... | The twist is that ... | It ends when ...
