Present Simple Games Pack

Six printable games for adults who know the rule but still say she work. Each game has a winner, and every answer is on the page, so pairs and small groups play and check on their own.

LEVEL	STUDENTS	GROUPING	TIME
A1 to B1	Adults and older teens	Pairs and small groups	10 to 25 minutes each

What's inside, in the order of the blog post

1	The -s Race	A board game: say the sentence right to stay on your square	Page 2
2	Answer First	Read Mia's answer, ask the question that gets it	Page 3
3	Guess the Neighbor	Sixteen neighbors, yes/no questions with does	Page 4
4	Routine Top Trumps	Twelve invented workers, wh-questions to win cards	Pages 5-6

Answer First

1. Play in two pairs or two teams. Mia is the same woman on every card.
2. Choose a card and read Mia's answer. Ask the question that gets this answer, with the words after Use: In a bank. → Where does Mia work?
3. The other team checks the questions at the bottom of the page. A right question wins the points; cross out the card.
4. When all the cards are crossed out, the team with more points wins.

Work	Free time	Food	Home
100 In a bank. Use: work	100 Yes, she does. She loves them. Use: like, movies	100 No, she doesn't. Use: eat meat	100 Yes, she does. A cat. Use: have a pet
200 By bus. Use: get to work	200 Tennis. Use: what, play, on Sundays	200 Green tea. Use: what, drink, in the morning	200 In Lisbon. Use: live
300 At 8:30. Use: start work	300 Twice a week. Use: how often, go swimming	300 At her desk, usually. Use: where, usually, have lunch	300 Two. Use: how many roommates, have
400 No, she doesn't. She works from home on Fridays. Use: go to the office, Fridays	400 With her brother. Use: who, watch football with	400 Because she doesn't have time. Use: why, skip breakfast	400 Her roommate Leo does. Use: who, cook dinner

Remember: Where does Mia work? not Where Mia works? · After does, no -s: Does she live?

Questions: Work 100 Where does Mia work? Work 200 How does Mia get to work? Work 300 What time does Mia start work? Work 400 Does Mia go to the office on Fridays? Free time 100 Does Mia like movies? Free time 200 What does Mia play on Sundays? Free time 300 How often does Mia go swimming? Free time 400 Who does Mia watch football with? Food 100 Does Mia eat meat? Food 200 What does Mia drink in the morning? Food 300 Where does Mia usually have lunch? Food 400 Why does Mia skip breakfast? Home 100 Does Mia have a pet? Home 200 Where does Mia live? Home 300 How many roommates does Mia have? Home 400 Who cooks dinner? (no does!)

Guess the Neighbor

YOU NEED one copy of this page per player, a pencil

1. Each player has a copy of this page. Choose one neighbor in secret and write the apartment number on a piece of paper.
2. Take turns to ask one yes/no question: Does your neighbor drink tea? Answer with Yes, he does or No, she doesn't.
3. Cross out the neighbors it can't be. Ask only about the four habits, not the name.
4. When you know, ask: Is it Apt 7? A wrong guess loses the round. Play five rounds: the player who needs fewer questions wins each round.

Routine Top Trumps

YOU NEED cards from pages 5 and 6, two or three players

1. Cut out all twelve cards and deal them. Hold your cards in a pile, face up, so only you can see the top one.
2. Player A chooses a line and asks: What time does your person get up? How many cups of coffee does he drink?
3. Player B reads the answer in a full sentence: Pedro gets up at 5 a.m. The better number wins both cards. Forget the -s and you lose the round.
4. The winner asks next. After ten minutes, the player with more cards wins.

GAME 5

Adverb Order Race

always	usually	often	sometimes	hardly ever	never
100%					0%

1. Cut out the tiles. Keep each numbered sentence in its own pile, then mix up the piles.
2. Teams race to put each sentence in order. The number on a tile tells you which sentence it belongs to.
3. Write each sentence down with a capital letter and a period, then check at the bottom of the page. Each right sentence wins a point.
4. The team that finishes first with the most points wins. Then make one true sentence about you with each adverb.

1	1 coffee	1 before work	1 drink	1 I	1 always
2	2 for meetings	2 late	2 she	2 never	2 is
3	3 usually	3 my boss	3 works	3 on Saturdays
4	4 dinner	4 at nine	4 eat	4 often	4 we
5	5 doesn't	5 he	5 take	5 usually	5 the bus
6	6 on Mondays	6 are	6 sometimes	6 they	6 tired
7	7 you	7 do	7 at home	7 cook	7 ever
8	8 TV	8 my sister	8 watches	8 hardly ever
9	9 on time	9 is	9 our train	9 usually
10	10 never	10 answer	10 the phone	10 my parents	10 after ten

The rule: the adverb goes before the main verb (she always walks) but after be (she is never late).

Answers: 1 I always drink coffee before work. 2 She is never late for meetings. 3 My boss usually works on Saturdays. 4 We often eat dinner at nine. 5 He doesn't usually take the bus. 6 They are sometimes tired on Mondays. 7 Do you ever cook at home? 8 My sister hardly ever watches TV. 9 Our train is usually on time. 10 My parents never answer the phone after ten.

Mistake Hunt

1. Work in pairs. Karl is the baker from the Top Trumps cards. His story has eight mistakes with the present simple.
2. Underline each mistake and write the right form above it. Write your time in the box when you find all eight.
3. Check at the bottom of the page. One point for each mistake you found and fixed. The pair with the most points wins; if two pairs tie, the faster one wins.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF KARL, THE BAKER

Karl is a baker in a small town. He get up at 3:30 every morning and walks to the bakery, five minutes from his house. He don't drink coffee before work. He drinks it at seven, when the first customers arrives. The bakery open at six, but Karl and his assistant start at four. They make bread, cakes and Karl's famous cinnamon rolls. His assistant, Lena, studys in the afternoon, so she leaves at noon. Karl usually go home at two. Does he sleeps in the afternoon? Yes, he does, for one hour. On Sundays the bakery is closed. Karl always is tired on Sunday, but he is happy.

Mistakes found ☐ / 8 Our time ☐

Your turn
